

26–Cultural relativism: The idea that cultural traits are best understood when viewed within the cultural context of which they are a part.