

40–Natural selection: Evolutionary change based on the differential reproductive success of individuals within a species.