

41–Personality: The distinctive way a person thinks, feels, and behaves.

42– Race: A subgroup of the human population whose members share a greater number of genes and physical traits with one another than they do with members of other subgroups.